SOLO, DUET, TRIO, and QUARTET

On the registration page, check the corresponding box if interested in being considered for one of the following based on eligibility and registration. Skaters are not guaranteed a spot as a solo, primary solo, duet, trio, or quartet regardless of eligibility if they list themselves as interested during registration. Additionally, skaters will not be selected for one of these roles if they do not indicate interest during registration. Skaters must be enrolled in private lessons. Skaters must meet all the criteria listed to be considered. Each skater's singles and skating skill level will be verified with his/her coach and USFS.

NOTE: If a skater is registered to test at a March test session, the Ice Show Director will honor that level being tested when determining assignments.

PLEASE CONSULT ELIGIBILITY WITH YOUR COACH. There are a finite number of spots for solos. Please register for both a primary solo and a secondary solo if you are interested in a solo of any kind. There are no guarantees for solo spots regardless of eligibility.

- PRIMARY SOLO
 - Registration Cost: $50
 - Passed Pre-Bronze Singles Test AND/OR Pre-Silver Skating Skills Test
 - Consistently land an axel within a program*
 - If you would like to be considered for a Primary Solo, you must email a video that includes your axel, best spin, and your musicality and expression to scofnovi.iceshow@gmail.com
 - Exceptions can be made if other criteria are met.

- SECONDARY SOLO
 - Registration Cost: $30
 - Passed Pre-Preliminary Singles Test AND/OR Pre-Bronze Skating Skills Test
 - If you would like to be considered for a Secondary Solo, you must email a video that includes your best jump and spin, and your musicality and expression to scofnovi.iceshow@gmail.com
- DUET/TRIO/QUARTET
 - Registration Cost: $30
 - Passed Preliminary Skating Skills Test
 - Must be able to land a loop jump
 - Skaters awarded a solo are eligible for an additional duet, trio, or quartet but MUST indicate that they are interested on their registration form.
 - Skaters interested in being placed in a duet, trio, or quartet are asked to name who they would like to skate with on their registration form. All skaters must meet the requirements for such a number. Skaters may request to keep their assigned duet, trios, or quartets from last year. We encourage skaters to work with students who take from the same coach, although that is not a requirement.
 - If you would like to be considered for a Duet, Trio, or Quartet, you must email a video that includes your loop jump, best spin, and your musicality and expression to scofnovi.iceshow@gmail.com
- Music will be chosen and provided by the Ice Show Director for all solos, duets, trios, and quartets.
- Soloist performers may choose their own costume; however, it is subject to approval by the Ice Show Director. Soloists are responsible for the cost of their costume. All costumes must be approved by the Ice Show Director by March 1st, 2024.
- Practice and choreography will be arranged with the skater's coach on freestyle ice.
- Soloists, duets, trios, and quartets are responsible for all coaching and practice ice fees incurred.

Please note that eligibility requirements may change from year to year to fit the needs of our club.
